[Amended 34/91]

19 Author of nuisance

The author of a nuisance means the person by whose act, default or sufferance a nuisance is caused, exists or is continued, whether he is the owner occupier or both of a premises or any other person.

20 Power to enter and inspect premises

(1) The Sanitary Authority or any person authorised by it in writing may, together with any assistants –

- (a) enter and inspect any premises, other than a private dwelling house at any reasonable time of the day; and
- (b) where necessary, open up the ground of the premises and cause the drains to be tested and perform such other work as may be necessary for the effective examination of the premises.

(2) Where no nuisance is found to exist on the premises under subsection (1), the premises shall be restored at Government's expense.

21 Entry and inspection of dwelling house

(1) Where the Sanitary Authority has reasonable ground to believe that there exists a nuisance in a private dwelling house, he may, at any reasonable time of the day, enter and inspect it.

(2) Where on an inspection being made under subsection (1) it is ascertained that a nuisance exists, the Sanitary Authority may enter and inspect the dwelling house.

22 Inspection of common lodging house

(1) The Sanitary Authority may inspect a common lodging house by day or by night.

(2) Where the condition of the common lodging house is, in the opinion of the Sanitary Authority, unsatisfactory, it may make an order to –

- (a) close the common lodging house;
- (b) reduce the number of inmates allowed to live in it;
- (c) restrict the number of rooms which may be used for habitation; or
- (d) specify such measures to be taken as the sanitary circumstances of the case require.

(3) Where an order to close the common lodging house, building or room is made, the common lodging house, building or room shall remain closed until the Sanitary Authority sanctions its reopening under such conditions as it thinks fit to impose.

23 Appeal from order of Sanitary Authority

(1) Any person dissatisfied with an order made by the Sanitary Authority under section 22 may, within 5 days, cause a summons to be served upon the Sanitary Authority to show cause, before the Magistrate of the district in which the common lodging house is situate, why the order should not be rescinded, discharged, modified or suspended.

(2) The Magistrate shall hear and determine the case, whatever may be the amount involved and, after hearing the evidence produced on both sides and the arguments of parties in the form and manner provided by the District and Intermediate Courts (Civil Jurisdiction) Act shall confirm, modify, suspend or rescind and discharge the order.

(3) In an action under this section, a party may appeal to the Supreme Court from the judgment of the Magistrate whatever may be the amount involved.

(4) The appeal shall be proceeded with in the manner and form provided by the District and Intermediate Courts (Civil Jurisdiction) Act and all proceedings shall be stayed until the final decision of the Supreme Court.

24 Non-compliance with order

(1) Where an order made by the Sanitary Authority under section 22 is not complied with within the period specified in the order, the common lodging house shall be erased from the register of common lodging houses and the common lodging house shall be deemed to be no longer a registered common lodging house.

(2) The keeper of a common lodging house who fails to comply with an order made under section 22 shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 500 rupees and the fine shall be recovered at the instance of the Sanitary Authority, or of any officer of the Ministry on a complaint made to, or information laid before the Magistrate of the District where the common lodging house is situate.

25 Closure of common lodging house

(1) Where an order made by the Sanitary Authority under section 22 is not complied with within the period specified in the order, the Magistrate of the district in which the common lodging house is situate may, on the application of the Sanitary Authority, issue a warrant for the expulsion of all the inmates of the common lodging house.

(2) The warrant may be executed by an officer of the Ministry deputed by the Sanitary Authority and any person refusing to leave the common lodging house shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 50 rupees.

26 Unlawful entry into common lodging house

(1) Any person who enters a common lodging house without the permission of the Sanitary Authority, after the warrant of a Magistrate has been executed under section 25, may be evicted by any officer having power to execute warrants and shall moreover commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 500 rupees.

(2) Notice of the warrant having been executed shall be posted on the door of the common lodging house.

27 Order to be in writing

(1) An order made by the Sanitary Authority under section 22 shall be in writing and service of the order may be effected by an officer of the Ministry by leaving a true copy of the order with the keeper.

(2) Notice of the order shall be posted on the door of the common lodging house, and where the keeper cannot be found within 24 hours, the posting of the notice on the door shall be held to be sufficient service of the order.

28 Certificate of Sanitary Authority

It shall be sufficient for the Sanitary Authority when applying for a warrant under section 25 to certify in writing that the order issued by it under section 22 has not been complied with within the specified period.

29 Notice to remove nuisance

(1) Where the Sanitary Authority is satisfied of the existence of a nuisance, he shall serve a notice in the form set out in the Second Schedule –

(a) on the author of the nuisance;

(b) where the author of the nuisance cannot be found, on the occupier or owner of the premises on which the nuisance arises or continues, requiring him to remove it within the period specified in the notice, not being less than 48 hours nor more than one month from the time of service of the notice, unless cause is shown to the Sanitary Authority for prolonging the period and to execute the work and do such things as may be necessary for that purpose.

(2) The Sanitary Authority may, if it thinks fit, specify any work to be executed to prevent a recurrence of the nuisance under subsection (1).

(3) Where the nuisance arises from the want or defective construction of any structure or where there is no occupier of the premises, the notice shall be served on the owner.

(4) Where the author of the nuisance cannot be found and the Sanitary Authority is satisfied that the nuisance does not arise or continue by the act, default or sufferance of the occupier or owner of the premises, the Sanitary Authority may abate the nuisance or do what is necessary to prevent its recurrence.

[Amended 4/89]

30 Service of notice

(1) Every notice shall be served by an officer of the Ministry by delivering it or a true copy at the residence of the person to whom it is addressed.

(2) Where the notice is addressed to the owner of premises, it shall also, if the owner cannot be found, be served by delivering it or a true copy of it to some person upon the premises, or by affixing it to some conspicuous part of the premises.

32 Failure to abate nuisance

(1) Where a person on whom notice under section 29 has been served, fails to comply with the notice, he shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine of not less than 1,000 rupees.

(2) Where the Sanitary Authority is not satisfied that the nuisance has abated, the Court may further order the author to abate the nuisance to the satisfaction of the Sanitary Authority within a prescribed delay.

(3) In case the nuisance still persists after order from the Court –

- (a) the author of the nuisance shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine which shall not be less than 1,000 rupees or more than 10,000 rupees;
- (b) the Court may further order him to abate the nuisance to the satisfaction of the Sanitary Authority within a prescribed delay; and
- (c) a task force may be set up by the Sanitary Authority to abate the nuisance.

(4) In the execution of an order made under subsection 3(b), the Sanitary Authority may –

- (a) be assisted by the Police;
- (b) forcibly enter any premises in respect of which the order has been issued; and
- (c) do whatever may be necessary to give effect to the order.

(5) All the expenses incurred in abating a nuisance under subsection (3), shall be recoverable from the author of the nuisance.

[Amended 4/89]

32A Measures to prevent the proliferation of mosquitoes

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, every occupier of premises shall ensure that no collection or accumulation of water containing or likely to contain mosquito larvae exists on any part of the premises.

(2) The Sanitary Authority may, at all reasonable times, inspect, and enter on or into, any premises for the purpose of verifying that the occupier is complying with subsection (1).

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) shall bind the State.

(4) (a) Where an occupier contravenes subsection (1), the Sanitary Authority shall serve on him a notice requiring him to forthwith remove or abate the collection or accumulation of water within such delay as may be specified in the notice.

(b) The Sanitary Authority may, after the expiry of the delay specified in the notice, do whatever may be necessary to remove or abate the collection or accumulation of water and may, for that purpose, forcibly enter the premises in respect of which the notice has been served, with or without the assistance of the police.

(c) All expenses incurred in removing or abating the collection or accumulation of water pursuant to paragraph (b) shall be recoverable from the occupier.

(5) (a) Notwithstanding this Act or any other enactment, where an occupier fails to comply with the notice referred to in subsection (4), the Sanitary Authority shall, after the expiry of the delay specified in the notice, serve on the occupier a notice calling upon him to pay the appropriate penalty.

(b) A notice under paragraph (a) shall –

- (i) be in such form as may be approved by the Sanitary Authority;
- (ii) be drawn up in quadruplicate; and
- (iii) specify –
 - (A) the name and address of the person committing the offence, where the name and address have been ascertained;
 - (B) the time and place of the offence;
 - (C) the appropriate penalty payable and the time within which it is to be paid;
 - (D) the District Court where the appropriate penalty is payable; and
 - (E) the name, and identity card number, of the Sanitary Authority officer who detected the offence.

(c) Every person on whom a notice is served under paragraph (a) shall, within 20 days of the service and on production of the notice, pay the appropriate penalty at the appropriate District Court.

(d) Any person on whom a notice is served under paragraph (a), who fails to pay the appropriate penalty within the delay specified in the notice, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 5,000 rupees.

(6) In this section –

“appropriate District Court” means the District Court of the district in which the premises in respect of which an offence has been detected are located;

“appropriate penalty” means a penalty of 1,000 rupees.

[Added 30/06]

33 Proceedings against authors of nuisance

(1) Where a nuisance appears to be wholly or partially caused by the act or default of more than one person, the Sanitary Authority or other complainant may –

- (a) institute proceedings against any one of those persons; or
- (b) include all or any 2 or more of those persons in one proceeding.

(2) Any one or more of those persons under subsection (1) may be –

- (a) ordered to abate the nuisance, so far as it appears to the court to be caused by his or their acts or defaults;
- (b) prohibited from continuing any act or default which in the opinion of the court contributes to the nuisance;
- (c) fined or otherwise punished, notwithstanding that the act or default of any of those persons would not separately have caused a nuisance, and the costs may be distributed as may appear fair and reasonable to the Court.

(3) Proceedings against several persons included in one complaint shall not abate by reason of the death of any of those persons but may be carried on as if the deceased had not been originally included in the proceedings.

(4) Where in any proceedings under this Act relating to nuisances, whether written or otherwise, it becomes necessary to mention or refer to the owner or occupier of premises, it shall be sufficient to designate him as the owner or occupier of the premises, without name or further description.

(5) Nothing in this section shall limit the right of any person proceeded against under this section to recover compensation under any other enactment.

34 Provision as to ships

(1) For the purposes of this Part, a ship or vessel lying in any river, harbour, creek, or other inland waters of Mauritius, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Sanitary Authority in the same manner as if it were a house.

(2) The master or other officer in charge of a ship shall be deemed for the purposes of this Part to be the occupier of the ship or vessel.

- (3) This section shall not apply to –
- (a) a Government naval vessel; or
 - (b) a ship or vessel belonging to a foreign Government.

35 Closing order of dwelling house

(1) Where the Sanitary Authority considers that a nuisance exists or is such as to render a dwelling house unfit for human habitation, he shall issue a closing order prohibiting the use of the house as a dwelling until in his judgment it is fit for that purpose.

(2) No rent shall be due or payable by or on behalf of the occupier of that dwelling in respect of the period in which the closing order exists.

(3) The Sanitary Authority on being satisfied that it has been rendered fit for use as a dwelling, may terminate the closing order and by a further order declare the house habitable and from that date the house may be let or inhabited.

(4) Notwithstanding any order made under subsection (3), further proceedings may be taken in accordance with this section in respect of the same house where a nuisance occurs or the house is again found to be unfit for human habitation.

36 Disobedience to closing order

Any person who fails to comply with the closing order of the Sanitary Authority shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 500 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months.

37 Appeal against closing order

(1) Any party aggrieved by or dissatisfied with any closing order of the Sanitary Authority may, within 8 days from the date of service of the order, cause a summons to be served upon the Sanitary Authority, calling upon him to show cause before the Magistrate of the district in which the dwelling house is situate, why the order should not be discharged, modified or suspended, as the case may be.

(2) The decision of the Magistrate shall be final.

38 Demolition of unfit dwelling

- (1) (a) Where the Sanitary Authority considers that –
- (i) a nuisance exists with respect to a dwelling; or
 - (ii) the dwelling is so dilapidated, so defectively constructed, or so situate, that repairs to or alterations of the dwelling are not likely to remove the nuisance and make it fit for human habitation, he shall enter a complaint before the Magistrate of the district where the dwelling is situate.

(b) The Magistrate shall issue a summons requiring the owner of the dwelling under subsection (1)(a) to appear before the Court to show cause why the dwelling should not be demolished.

- (c) After hearing the evidence of both parties, the Magistrate may order the owner –
- (i) to commence the demolition of the dwelling on or before a specified day, being at least one month from the date of issuing the order;
 - (ii) to complete the demolition and remove the materials of the dwelling from the site before another specified day.

(2) (a) The Magistrate shall give notice to the occupier of a dwelling in respect of which an order has been issued requiring him to move from it within a period of not less than one month and not exceeding 2 months.

(b) Any person who fails to comply with the notice or occupies the dwelling or premises after the date fixed shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 1,000 rupees.

(3) Where any person fails to comply with an order made under subsection (1) for demolition he shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 100 rupees for every day during which the non-compliance continues and the Sanitary Authority may cause the dwelling and other structures on the premises to be demolished and may recover from the owner the expenses incurred, after deducting the net proceeds of the sale of the materials, which the Sanitary Authority may sell by auction.

39 Appeal from order of Magistrate

Any party aggrieved by or dissatisfied with an order of the Magistrate, may appeal to the Supreme Court and the appeal shall be proceeded with in the form and manner provided by the District and Intermediate Courts (Civil Jurisdiction) Act.

40 Damaging property

Any person who wilfully damages any property or work under the charge of an officer of the Ministry shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 100 rupees, in addition to the cost of repairing or making good the property or work.

PART III – INFECTIOUS OR COMMUNICABLE DISEASES

41 Notification of disease

(1) The occupier of any premises in which a patient resides shall, as soon as he becomes aware of the fact, give notice to the Sanitary Authority.

(2) Where the occupier is prevented by illness or otherwise from giving the notice, the nearest relative of the patient present on the premises or being in attendance on the patient, and where there is no relative, every person in charge of or in attendance on the patient shall give the notice.

42 Notification by medical practitioner

(1) Every medical practitioner attending on, or called in to visit, a person shall, on becoming aware that the person is suffering from an infectious or communicable disease, give notice to the Sanitary Authority or health inspector of the district, of the existence of the disease, the name of the patient, the situation of the premises, and the name of the occupier.

(2) The Permanent Secretary shall, on application, supply forms of certificates to notify the disease to every medical practitioner free of charge.

(3) Any person who fails to comply with this section shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 100 rupees.

43 Fee payable to medical practitioner

(1) For every certificate duly sent, there shall be paid to the medical practitioner signing it such fee as may be prescribed.

(2) Not more than one fee shall be payable for the same case within an interval of 15 days to the same medical practitioner for certificates given by him in respect of the same disease occurring on the same premises.

(3) No fee shall be payable for a certificate delivered by a medical practitioner in respect of a patient in a public hospital, asylum or infirmary of which he is the medical practitioner.

44 Notification by Civil Status Officer

Every Civil Status Officer shall forthwith report to the Sanitary Authority any death from an infectious or communicable disease which may be declared to him or of which he may become aware in his official capacity.

45 Duties and powers of Sanitary Authority

On receipt of a notice, certificate or report referred to in sections 41, 42 and 44, or on becoming aware of the existence of an infectious or communicable disease on premises, the Sanitary Authority with such assistants as may be necessary, may enter the premises between sunrise and sunset and take such remedial steps as may be prescribed.

46 Powers of entry of Sanitary Authority

(1) The Sanitary Authority and any officer who may be specially deputed and authorised in writing by the Sanitary Authority may –

- (a) enter during the day or night and inspect any premises where he may have reasonable grounds to believe that an infectious or communicable disease exists or has recently existed, with regard to which no notice, certificate or report has been received;
- (b) enter upon any premises between sunrise and sunset to exercise such supervision and control as may be necessary over any case of infectious or communicable disease existing on the premises during its whole course;
- (c) enter upon any premises between sunrise and sunset to enforce due observance of this Act; and
- (d) enter any common lodging house.

(2) Where no notice, certificate, or report has been received, the Sanitary Authority may examine any person found on the premises with a view to ascertaining whether that person is suffering, or has recently suffered, from an infectious or communicable disease.

48 Removal of patient to hospital

Where, in the opinion of the Sanitary Authority, a person certified by a medical practitioner to be a patient is not accommodated, or is not treated or nursed, in such manner as adequately to guard against the spread of the disease, that patient may, on the order of the Sanitary Authority, be removed to and detained in a hospital or temporary place which, in the opinion of the Sanitary Authority, is suitable for his reception until the Sanitary Authority or any medical practitioner authorised by the Permanent Secretary is satisfied that he is free from infection or can be discharged without danger to public health.

49 Unlawful exposure to infectious disease

(1) Any person who –

- (a) knowing that he is a patient, wilfully or negligently exposes himself in such manner as to be likely or liable to spread the disease in any street, public place, public building, shop, inn, hotel, church, or other place used, frequented or occupied in common by persons, other than the members of the family or household to which the patient belongs;
- (b) being in charge of a patient, exposes the patient in the manner mentioned in paragraph (a);

- (g) the removal of patients and any other persons who have been in contact with them;
- (h) the removal of corpses and the holding of postmortem examinations;

- (i) the destruction of rats, the means and precautions to be taken on shore or on board vessels for preventing them passing from vessel to the shore or vice versa, and the better prevention of the danger of spreading infection by rats;
- (j) the regulation of hospitals used for the reception of patients and of observation camps and stations;
- (k) the removal and disinfection of articles which have been exposed to infection;
- (l) the closing of schools;
- (m) any other purpose having for its object the prevention, control or suppression of any infectious or communicable disease; and
- (n) the destruction of buildings subject to section 52(1) and to compensation being paid.

81 Sanitary Authority's duties

The Sanitary Authority shall –

- (a) superintend the execution of any order or regulations issued under section 79 or 80; and
- (b) do and provide all such acts, matters and things as may be advisable for –
 - (i) mitigating the disease;
 - (ii) superintending or aiding in the execution of the orders and regulations;
 - (iii) implementing orders and regulations as the case may require.

82 Sanitary Authority may inspect premises

The Sanitary Authority, pursuant to an order or regulations made under section 79 or 80, or an officer or person authorised by it, may enter during the day or night, and inspect, any premises where they have ground to believe that any person has recently died or is suffering or has recently suffered from any disease.

83 Order to abate overcrowding

- (1) Where a Proclamation is in force in any place –
 - (a) on the certificate of the Sanitary Authority or a medical practitioner; or
 - (b) on other sufficient evidence, that any premises or part of premises are so overcrowded as to be dangerous to health, the Permanent Secretary may make such order as he thinks fit to abate the overcrowding.

(2) The owner or occupier of the premises who permits the overcrowding after an order or a copy has been served on him shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 100 rupees for each day during which the overcrowding continues.

PART VI –

84-121 –

PART VII – LEPROSY

122 Interpretation

In this Part –

“convicted leper” means a person detained in a prison for an offence or on a judgment for debt and being at the time of his detention, or becoming during his detention, affected with leprosy;

“judgment for debt” means a judgment decreeing imprisonment by virtue of the Courts (Civil Procedure) Act and the District and Intermediate Courts (Civil Jurisdiction) Act;

“leprosy” means all forms of disease caused by the bacillus leprae of Hansen;

“leper hospital” means a building or collection of buildings erected and established under section 123 and used for the treatment or detention of persons affected with leprosy together with the land surrounding the buildings and set apart and defined under that section for the occupation of those persons;

“Leprosy Board” means a Board composed of the Permanent Secretary or any officer designated by him, the medical officer in charge of the leper hospital and of the District Magistrate of Pamplemousses.

123 Establishment of leper hospital

- (1) The President may –
 - (a) cause to be erected and established in Mauritius a leper hospital for the detention of persons affected with leprosy and removed to it under this Act;
 - (b) appropriate and set apart any State land for the purpose of establishing a leper hospital.

(2) The establishment of the leper hospital and the boundaries of any land appropriated and set apart under subsection (1) shall be notified in the Gazette.

[Amended 48/91]

124 Notification of leprosy

(1) Any person who gets to know that some other person who is outside the leper hospital and not exempted under section 135 from this Part is affected or is suspected of being affected with leprosy may report the fact or suspicion to the Sanitary Authority.

(2) The Sanitary Authority shall bring the matter to the notice of the Magistrate of the district in which the affected or suspected person resides.

125 Duty of Magistrate

Every Magistrate receiving a report under section 124 shall –

- (a) after such inquiry as he thinks necessary, cause that person to be examined as soon as possible by the Leprosy Board;
- (b) obtain a report of the examination from the Board.

126 Detention order

- (1) Where the Leprosy Board reports that –
 - (a) the person alleged to be affected with leprosy is so affected; or
 - (b) it is doubtful whether he is so affected or not, the Magistrate shall, unless that person is exempted by the Permanent Secretary under section 135, order him to be removed to the leper hospital to be detained in accordance with this Part.

- (2) An order under subsection (1) shall be –
 - (a) termed a detention order;
 - (b) addressed to the medical officer in charge of the leper hospital; and
 - (c) delivered to a police officer, together with the report mentioned in this section.
- (3) A detention order shall –
 - (a) authorise the reception and detention of the person named in the order in the leper hospital;
 - (b) where the person named in the order is detained in isolation at any place outside the leper hospital, further authorise any police officer to conduct that person to the leper hospital.

127 Voluntary submission to treatment

(1) Any person who suspects that he is affected with leprosy and desires to submit himself to treatment may for that purpose present himself to the Magistrate of the district in which he is residing.

(2) The Magistrate shall require the Leprosy Board to examine that person and if the Board reports that –

- (a) that person is affected with leprosy; or
- (b) it is doubtful whether he is so affected,

section 126 shall apply.

129 Duties of medical officer

The medical officer in charge of the leper hospital shall –

- (a) within 3 days of the date of admission of any person affected with leprosy, cause that person to be examined both clinically and bacteriologically and record in the case book provided for the purpose the results of the examination;
- (b) attach to the record charts of maculae or mutilations, and photographs of the person affected with leprosy;
- (c) cause proper food and necessary comforts to be supplied to that person and the premises to be properly and cleanly kept;
- (d) perform such other duties and exercise such powers as may be imposed and conferred upon him by this Part.

130 Entry in leper hospital forbidden

(1) No person shall be permitted to enter the leper hospital except in accordance with regulations made under this Act.

(2) Except as provided in this Part, no communication or intercourse shall be allowed between persons detained in the leper hospital and any person, other than an officer or attendant.

131 Lawful detention

(1) Every person shall, during the course of removal to or while detained in the leper hospital under this Part, be deemed to be in lawful detention until discharged and while in detention shall be subject to this Part.

(2) Any person escaping from lawful detention may be pursued, arrested without warrant and taken back into detention by any person at any place where he may be found.

132 Detainee may receive visitors

Every person lawfully detained under this Part shall be permitted to receive visits from relatives, friends, legal advisors or ministers of religion at such reasonable times and subject to such restrictions as may be prescribed.

133 Cleaning and disinfection of residence

Where a person –

- (a) has been removed to the leper hospital under section 126; or
- (b) placed in isolation under section 135,

the Sanitary Authority shall forthwith cause the residence of that person to be cleaned and disinfected.

134 Photographs of detainee

(1) Every person detained in the leper hospital shall submit himself to be photographed from time to time as the medical officer in charge of the leper hospital thinks fit.

(2) Any person under subsection (1) who refuses to allow himself to be photographed shall commit an offence and shall be liable, on conviction, to be punished in such manner as the President shall, by regulations, direct.

(3) Any person who gives, supplies or exhibits any photograph obtained under this section to any person to whom he is not expressly or by regulations authorised to give, supply or exhibit shall commit an offence.

[Amended 48/91]

135 Exemptions from this Part

(1) The Permanent Secretary may authorise a person affected with leprosy to reside in a private building if he is satisfied that proper provision will be made for his isolation, home segregation, treatment and supervision in accordance with the regulations made under this Act.

(2) (a) The Permanent Secretary may cancel an authorisation given under subsection (1) if he considers that –

- (i) the conditions on which the authorisation was given are not being properly observed; or
 - (ii) its continuance would entail risks of spread of the disease.
- (b) The Magistrate of the district where the person affected with leprosy resides shall issue a detention order and that person shall be removed to the leper hospital.
- (3) (a) A Government medical officer may during the day enter any private building where any person affected with leprosy is authorised to reside under subsection (1) and inspect the building and examine that person.
- (b) The private building under paragraph (a) shall be inspected by a medical practitioner appointed by the Permanent Secretary at least once every 6 months and the medical practitioner shall send a report of his inspection to the Permanent Secretary.

136 Convict leper may be removed to hospital

The President may authorise or cause the removal of any convict leper to the leper hospital for detention and treatment during the President's pleasure.

[Amended 48/91]

137 Appeal from detention order

(1) (a) Any party or any next of kin of any party aggrieved by an order of the Magistrate or of the Permanent Secretary under this Part may appeal to the Supreme Court within 21 days of the order.

(b) The appeal shall be against the Permanent Secretary and the procedure shall be governed as nearly as may be by the procedure in appeals from District Magistrates, in civil matters except that the appellant shall not be compelled to furnish security for costs.

(2) Any person detained under this Part or his next of kin may apply to the Supreme Court for a rule calling upon the Permanent Secretary to show cause why the detained person should not be released.

[Amended 29/92]

138 President's powers

This Part shall not be deemed to be in restriction of the President's prerogative and power to release any leper at any time he thinks convenient from the leper hospital.

[Amended 48/91]

139 Offences

Any person who commits an offence under this Part shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 1,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.

140-145 –

PART VIII – PROTECTION OF FOOD

146 Buildings used to store food

(1) All buildings, except sugar factories, used for the preparation or storage of food for sale shall be –

- (a) constructed of such materials and kept in such condition as shall satisfy the Sanitary Authority; and
 - (b) rat proof.
- (2) (a) Where a building –
- (i) is not constructed and maintained in the manner mentioned under subsection (1);
 - (ii) has fallen into a state of disrepair; or
 - (iii) does not, in the opinion of the Sanitary Authority, afford sufficient protection against rat invasion by reason of the materials used in the construction of the building being defective, the Sanitary Authority may, by written notice, require the owner to effect such repairs and alterations as the notice shall prescribe within a time to be specified in the notice.

(b) Where the notice under paragraph (a) is not complied with, the Sanitary Authority may –

- (i) enter upon the premises and effect the repairs and alterations; and
- (ii) recover all costs and expenses incurred from the owner.

(3) Where, in the opinion of the Sanitary Authority, any food for sale within a building are insufficiently protected, the occupier of the building shall observe all written instructions and directions of the Sanitary Authority within a time to be specified in the notice for the better protection of the foods.

147 Prohibitions

(1) No person shall reside or sleep in any kitchen or room in which food is prepared or stored for sale.

(2) No person shall sell, prepare or store food in any room where –

- (a) any form of latrine or sleeping place communicates directly with the room; or
- (b) there is an inlet or opening from a drain.

(3) (a) Where it appears to the Sanitary Authority that –

- (i) any kitchen or room is being used in contravention of this section; or
- (ii) any part of the premises adjoining the room in which food is stored or exposed for sale is being used as a sleeping apartment under such circumstances that the food is likely to be contaminated or made unwholesome, he may serve upon the occupier a notice calling for such measures to be taken as shall prevent the improper use of the kitchen and premises within a time to be specified in the notice.

(b) Where the notice under paragraph (a) is not complied with, the person upon whom it is served shall commit an offence.

148 Appeal against notice to Magistrate

(1) Where the person on whom a notice is served under section 146 or 147 is dissatisfied with any of its requisitions, he may, within the time specified in the notice for compliance, cause a summons to be served upon the Sanitary Authority, calling upon it to show cause before the Magistrate of the district in which the warehouse, building, kitchen or room is situate, why the notice should not be discharged, notified or suspended, as the case may be.

(2) (a) Any party to the suit may appeal to the Supreme Court from the judgment of the Magistrate, irrespective of the amount involved.

(b) The appeal shall be proceeded with in the form and manner specified in the District and Intermediate Courts (Civil Jurisdiction) Act.

(c) All proceedings shall be stayed pending the final decision of the Supreme Court.

149 Offences

Any person who commits an offence under this Part shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 500 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) (b) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 1,000 rupees.

[Amended 48/91]

162 List of authorised cemeteries

(1) All cemeteries which are now in use and such other cemeteries as may be authorised by the President, shall be deemed authorised cemeteries.

(2) Notice of the cemeteries authorised by the President shall be published in the Gazette.

[Amended 48/91]

163 Permit to exhume

(1) Subject to section 165, no person shall exhume a dead body or any human remains which may have been interred in an authorised cemetery or in any other cemetery, burial ground, or other place without a permit.

(2) The permit under subsection (1) shall be granted only to the legal personal representative or next of kin of the person buried or to his duly authorised agent.

(3) The permit may be granted by the Permanent Secretary in respect of any dead body or human remains interred in any cemetery, burial ground or any other place.

164 Conditions of permit to exhume

(1) The permitting authority may specify such precautions as he thinks fit as a condition of the grant of the permit.

(2) Any person who –

(a) exhumes a dead body or any human remains in contravention of this Act; or

(b) neglects to observe the precautions specified in the permit, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 1,000 rupees.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), a Magistrate may order the exhumation of a dead body or human remains for the purpose of holding an inquiry into the cause of death of any person.

165 Exhumation and removal of body

(1) The President may where he thinks it expedient for the execution of any public purpose –

(a) authorise the removal of a dead body or human remains from a grave whether in an authorised cemetery or elsewhere;

(b) by order under his hand direct the removal under paragraph (a) to be made in such manner as he thinks fit.

(2) (a) No order shall be made in respect of a grave situated in an authorised cemetery until 6 months notice of the intention to make it has been given by notification in the Gazette.

(b) Copies of the notice shall be posted at or near the grave, and sent by registered post to the legal personal representative or next of kin of the person buried, if his address can be ascertained.

(c) The copies shall be accompanied by a translation in the language of the race to which the deceased person belonged.

(3) Where an order is made directing a removal from a grave elsewhere than in an authorised cemetery, due notice of the order shall, as far as possible, be given to the legal representative or next of kin of the person buried before the work of removal is undertaken.

(4) (a) The Government shall make proper and fitting arrangements for –

(i) the reinterment in an authorised cemetery of a body or human remains removed under this section;

(ii) the removal and re-erection of any monument.

(b) All charges incurred under paragraph (a) shall be defrayed out of the Consolidated Fund.

[Amended 48/91]

166 Record of permit for exhumation

(1) There shall be kept a record of every permit granted and of every order made under sections 164 and 165.

(2) The record shall –

- (a) contain particulars, so far as they can be ascertained, of the race, nationality, name, sex, and age of the persons buried, date of burial and of the place of original burial, and of reburial or removal; and
- (b) be open during office hours for inspection by any person.

167 Minister may close cemetery

169 Permit required for cremation

No corpse shall be cremated or burned without a special permit from –

- (a) the Permanent Secretary; or
- (b) the Sanitary Authority.

170 Crematorium

The Government may build crematoria in connection with public cemeteries or elsewhere.

171 Where corpse is not burnt in crematorium

Any person may burn a dead body in a place other than a crematorium where –

- (a) there is no crematorium at hand;
- (b) the place selected for burning is not within view of any inhabited dwelling house and is otherwise to the satisfaction of the Permanent Secretary.

172 Conditions of permit

(1) No permit shall be granted for the cremation or burning of a dead body unless –

- (a) the person whose corpse it is intended to cremate or burn was attended during his last illness by a medical practitioner who certifies that the deceased died of natural causes;
- (b) there is appended to the certificate of the medical practitioner mentioned in paragraph (a), 2 independent certificates signed by persons who knew the deceased testifying that, to the best of their knowledge and belief, the deceased died of natural causes.

(2) (a) The application for the permit of cremation or burning shall specify –

- (i) the date and hour of the death;
- (ii) the name, sex and age of the deceased;
- (iii) the crematorium at which the operation is to be carried out; and
- (iv) where the crematorium exists, the spot chosen for the burning and its distance from the nearest inhabited locality.

(b) The application shall be accompanied by any permit of burial that may have been issued.

(3) Before granting a permit the Permanent Secretary or the Sanitary Authority may require –

- (a) such information as he thinks necessary;
- (b) an autopsy to be performed by the medical practitioner who attended the deceased.

173 Police inquiry

(1) No permit for the cremation or burning of the body of a deceased person who was not attended by a medical practitioner shall be granted, until after an inquiry held by the Police, with the assistance of a medical practitioner appointed and paid by the persons applying for the permit.

- (2) The application shall be accompanied by –
 - (a) the certificate of the probable cause of death from the medical practitioner appointed under subsection (1);
 - (b) certificates from 2 persons who knew the deceased stating that, to the best of their knowledge and belief, the deceased died from natural causes.

(3) Where a judicial inquiry followed by an autopsy has taken place, the application may be accompanied by a certificate from the medical practitioner who performed the operation and the certificate shall be deemed proof of the nature of the cause of death of the deceased.

(4) The Police inquiry under subsection (1) shall be forwarded to the Permanent Secretary who, before granting a permit, may further require –

- (a) such information as he thinks necessary;
- (b) an autopsy to be performed by a medical practitioner, other than a medical practitioner appointed by the parties under subsection (1).

174 Time limit for cremation

Except with the permission of the Permanent Secretary, no cremation or burning shall take place unless 24 hours have elapsed since the death of the person to be cremated or burnt.

175 Where Magistrate has ordered autopsy

Where a Magistrate has ordered an autopsy to be performed on a dead person under section 110 of the District and Intermediate Courts (Criminal Jurisdiction) Act, no cremation shall take place until all the proceedings outlined in that section have been completed.

176 Offences

(1) Where a certificate issued under this Part is false, the person who signed the false certificate and any person who uses or utters the certificate shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months.

(2) Any person who cremates, burns, allows or causes to be cremated or burnt any corpse without having obtained the special permit or before the period specified under this Part, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 500 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months.

178 Sanitation works

(1) (a) The President may, having regard to vested rights, direct the execution on State land and private land of works for improving the sanitary condition of any area in the Island of Mauritius.

- (b) These works shall include the –
 - (i) draining of marshes or other lakes, ponds or other low lying grounds where water may accumulate;

- (ii) straightening or other variation of the courses of rivers;
- (iii) alteration of the levels of beds of rivers to provide for the better flow of water;
- (iv) removal or reconstruction of dykes and dams in rivers; and
- (v) canalisation of river courses and the removal of vegetable, other growth or impediments in, and along the banks of lakes, ponds or river courses and along and around the dykes and dams mentioned in subparagraph (iv).

(2) Notwithstanding the Rivers and Canals Act, it shall not be necessary to apply to the Supreme Court for authority to execute any works under subsection (1) in or in respect of any river, lake or pond.

[Amended 48/91]

179 Execution of sanitation works

Any works under section 178 shall be executed on any State land by the Government and on any private land, by the Government or by the owner of the land at his request and under such conditions, to be determined by the President, as will ensure the satisfactory execution of the works.

[Amended 48/91]

180 Cost of works

- (1) (a) The cost of any works under section 178 shall be borne –
- (i) where the works are for the exclusive benefit of the owner of the land, by the owner;
 - (ii) where the works are for the exclusive benefit of the public, by the Government;
 - (iii) where the works are for the joint benefit of the owner of the land and of the public, jointly by the Government and by the owner of the land in a proportion to be determined by the Board of Assessors, after taking into consideration the number of persons living on the land and the benefit to the public.

(b) Where the effect of the works is to reclaim by drainage and render fit for cultivation any portion of marshy land formerly unfit for cultivation, the portion of the cost of the works, represented by the value of the reclaimed land shall be borne exclusively by the owner of the reclaimed land and the balance shall be apportioned as specified in paragraph (a).

- (2) The Board of Assessors –
- (a) shall adjudicate on the documents and written pleadings filed by the parties;
 - (b) may hear evidence on oath and make inspections.

(3) Sections 10 to 13 of the Commissions of Inquiry Act shall apply to the proceedings of the Board of Assessors.

(4) All awards of the Board of Assessors shall be recovered without stamp or registration in the same manner as judgments of the Supreme Court, of the Intermediate Court or of the District Courts.

181 Maintenance

(1) The maintenance of the works shall be carried out by the Government or by the owner of the land in the circumstances and under the conditions specified in section 179.

(2) The cost of the maintenance of the works shall be borne by the same parties and in the same proportion as the costs of execution.

182 Entry on lands

(1) In the execution of any work under this Act, an officer or employee of the Government appointed for the purpose may enter on any land with animals, vehicles, materials, tools, workmen and labourers necessary thereto, occupy the land and perform any act.

(2) Any person who obstructs the officer or employee under subsection (1) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to the penalties provided under section 3 of the Public Officers' Protection Act, which shall apply to this section.

183 Financing of works

- (1) The President may advance from –
- (a) the Consolidated Fund; or
 - (b) any surplus balances or funds in his hands,

such sums as may be required, for meeting the cost of execution or maintenance of any work undertaken under this Act.

(2) (a) Where the cost under subsection (1) is chargeable in whole or in part to the landowner, the President may make such arrangements as he thinks fit for the repayment of the sum advanced.

- (b) Any sum due and unpaid shall –
- (i) be a first charge upon the land, having priority over all privileges and mortgages; and
 - (ii) bind the person to whom the estate may be transferred.

[Amended 48/91]

184 Permission to use basement

(1) No person shall live in, occupy, use, let, sublet or permit to be used any basement for habitation.

(2) Subject to subsection (1) no person shall, without the written permission of the Sanitary Authority, use any basement as a shop, workshop, or factory or for the preparation or storage of food.

- (3) No basement shall be used for the purposes mentioned in subsection (2) unless it is –
- (a) well lit and ventilated;
 - (b) free from damp;
 - (c) rendered rat proof to the satisfaction of the Sanitary Authority.
