

LAW OF TURKMENISTAN

On the amendments to the Law of Turkmenistan "On the protection of the health of citizens from tobacco smoke exposure and from the consequences of tobacco consumption."

I. To amend the Law of Turkmenistan of December 18, 2013 "On the protection of the health of citizens from tobacco smoke exposure and from the consequences of tobacco consumption" (The statement of the Mejlis (Assembly) of Turkmenistan, 2013, № 4, p. 90) as follows:

1. Paragraph 4 of Part IV of Article 13 shall read as follows:

"4) on the territory and premises of sports facilities, health facilities, educational, cultural (including resort areas) and catering facilities located in these institutions (including dietetic cafeterias), as well as shopping facilities and catering, specializing in the sales of baby food;"

2. In article 21:

items 1 and 2 of the seventh section shall read as follows:

"1) the text of the letters is applied on top of the drawing (icon) in bold, crisp images with an easily readable font. This spacing should not exceed the height of the font;

2) The text orientation is parallel to the lower and upper edge of the cigarette pack or to other consumer tobacco product packaging. The layout of the text should maximize the preservation of the images of the drawing (icon) of the devastating consequences of tobacco consumption and the exposure to tobacco smoke on the human body; " in the eleventh section, the words "eighth and ninth" shall be replaced by the words "ninth and tenth;" the word "capital "shall be deleted.

II. This Law enters into force from the date of its official publication.
